Mr. John Allen Chalk
Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John Allen:

I appreciate your leadership in the recent Nashville retreat. I am sorry I was unable to accept the invitation to attend. My finances are extremely tight this year due to the fact that I am working on my Doctor's Degree at Claremont.

However, I heard a very enthusiastic review from one of the attendees at this retreat. It is not easy to look at the brotherhood objectively and I deeply appreciate your leadership in such a critique. This takes courage for some brethren do not look so kindly on such an endeavor.

May the Lord continue to bless your work with the Herald of Truth.

Sincerely yours,

Jack Scott
